Chuck -A- Luck

Chuck -a- Luck is a version of Big Six. Instead of a dice wheel, a Three-Dice "Birdcage" is used.

-They player places his chip stack in one of the six betting sections
(1...2...3...4...5...6)

-The birdcage is spun after all bets are down. When the cage stops, the dice indicates the winning players.

-If a single winning dice is represented in the winning section,
"Example 3" the player wins EVEN MONEY.

-If "Doubles" appear in the cage, (Two 3's for example), the player is paid DOUBLE HIS BET.

-If "Triples" appear, (Three 3's in this case), the player wins TRIPLE HIS BET.

-The dealer collects all losing bets first, and then pays winning best.
After paying all winning bets, the dealer declares the game "Open for the next round," and the players place their new bets.
